Code of Conduct

For Clubhouse Territory – Pop Up Theatre Club

Clubhouse Territory is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its students and staff members. We are a bully-free zone for all children.

At Clubhouse, we believe that it is important that members, coordinators, staff and parents associated with the club should, always, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others.

Therefore, students are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the workshop with any of the staff or administrators at Clubhouse Territory Theatre Club activities and events.

As a member of Clubhouse Territory Pop-Up Theatre Club, you are expected to abide by the following junior code of practice:

Clubhouse Kids are expected to:

Be friendly and welcoming to new members
Be supportive, respectful and committed to other cast members, offer comfort when required
Wear suitable rehearsal shoes and clothing
Keep within the defined boundary of the rehearsal area
Take care of rehearsal and performance spaces and equipment. Keep our 'theatre-home' tidy.
Behave and listen to all instructions from the staff.
Not get involved in inappropriate peer pressure and don't push others into something they do not want to do. Refrain from bullying or persistent-use teasing.
Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants, regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background or religious beliefs or sexual identity.
Refrain from the use of bad language or racial/sectarian references. This includes bullying using new technologies like social media or texting.
Challenge or report the bullying of your peers

Understand that no drugs or alcohol are allowed at any of the rehearsal or performance locations, at any time.
If Clubhouse students or staff members do not obey these rules, they will be immediately dismissed from the workshop.

Report inappropriate behaviour or risky situations to the staff or program co-ordinator.

Clubhouse Kids have the right to:

Be heard
Be respected and treated fairly
Be safe and happy in their chosen activity
Their privacy
Enjoy their rehearsal in a safe environment
Participate on an equal basis, appropriate to their abilities
Ask for help

Any misdemeanours and general misbehaviour will be addressed by the immediate facilitator and reported verbally to the program co-ordinator.

Persistent misbehaviour will result in dismissal from the theatre workshop.

Parents will be informed at all stages.
